Introduction

UH West O'ahu, the most recent addition to the UH system, opened its doors in January 1976 as West O'ahu College. The name of the institution was changed to the University of Hawai'i – West O'ahu by the Board of Regents in 1989.

UH West O'ahu is a four-year, comprehensive university with an emphasis on baccalaureate education founded in the liberal arts, serving professional, career-related, and applied fields, based on State and regional needs. UH West O'ahu is committed to providing access to residents throughout the State of Hawai'i through its partnerships with the University of Hawai'i community colleges and its delivery of distance education programs. UH West O'ahu is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), Accrediting Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities.
